

Bulletin and Newsletter Briefs

August 2007

prepared by CatholicCaregivers.com,

a program of the Friends of St. John the Caregiver (www.FSJC.org)

Caregiving is pro-life!

“The Church reaches out to families facing the serious illnesses of loved ones with deep respect for the precious gift of life and with hope for the gift of eternal life.”

--Maryland Bishops Pastoral Letter,
Care of the Sick and Dying, 1993

Caregiving is pro-life!

“The Church reaches out to families facing the serious illnesses of loved ones with deep respect for the precious gift of life and with hope for the gift of eternal life.

--Maryland Bishops Pastoral Letter,
Care of the Sick and Dying, 1993

Caregiving is pro-life!

“Caregiving is a thoughtful, necessary, and selfless act of kindness.”

-- Family Caregivers of Northwest Michigan,
Catholic Human Services

Caregiving is pro-life!

“Caregiving is a thoughtful, necessary, and selfless act of kindness.”

-- Family Caregivers of Northwest Michigan,
Catholic Human Services

www.CatholicCaregivers.com

www.YourAgingParent.com

www.FSJC.org