

Bulletin and Newsletter Briefs

May 2008

prepared by CatholicCaregivers.com, a program of the Friends of St. John the Caregiver (www.FSJC.org)

Caregiving is pro-life!

“We admire and encourage families who . . . care for an elderly or disabled relative in their homes.”

–United States Conference of Catholic Bishops,
“Follow the Way of Love” (1994)

Caregiving is pro-life!

“We admire and encourage families who . . . care for an elderly or disabled relative in their homes.”

–United States Conference of Catholic Bishops,
“Follow the Way of Love” (1994)

Caregiving is pro-life!

“Caregiving to elderly members often requires sacrifice from all family members. The gift of sacrifice occurs when we give way to the differing needs of one another – in love.”

–Catholic Family Services of Toronto

Caregiving is pro-life!

“Caregiving to elderly members often requires sacrifice from all family members. The gift of sacrifice occurs when we give way to the differing needs of one another – in love.”

–Catholic Family Services of Toronto

www.CatholicCaregivers.com

www.YourAgingParent.com

www.FSJC.org