

Bulletin and Newsletter Briefs

August 2010

prepared by CatholicCaregivers.com, a program of the Friends of St. John the Caregiver (www.FSJC.org)

Caregiving is pro-life!

“Compassion is the divine quality that, when present in human beings, enables us to feel deeply the suffering of others and move from being an observer to being a caregiver; from caring for only ourselves, to being a vehicle of God’s mercy and love in another person’s life.”

--Father Stephen M. Koeth,
C.S.C.

Friends of St. John the Caregiver
www.FSJC.org
1-800-392-JOHN

Caregiving is pro-life!

“Compassion is the divine quality that, when present in human beings, enables us to feel deeply the suffering of others and move from being an observer to being a caregiver; from caring for only ourselves, to being a vehicle of God’s mercy and love in another person’s life.”

--Father Stephen M. Koeth, C.S.C.

Friends of St. John the Caregiver
www.FSJC.org 1-800-392-JOHN

Caregiving is pro-life!

“ If you’ve accepted the ‘vocation’ of caregiver, you’re listening [to Jesus] well! And you’re following the advice the Blessed Mother gave to the servers at the wedding feast at Cana: ‘Do whatever he tells you’ (John 2:5).”

--YourAgingParent.com

Friends of St. John the Caregiver
www.FSJC.org
1-800-392-JOHN

Caregiving is pro-life!

“ If you’ve accepted the ‘vocation’ of caregiver, you’re listening [to Jesus] well! And you’re following the advice the Blessed Mother gave to the servers at the wedding feast at Cana: ‘Do whatever he tells you’ (John 2:5).”

--YourAgingParent.com

Friends of St. John the Caregiver
www.FSJC.org 1-800-392-JOHN