

Bulletin and Newsletter Briefs

March 2007

prepared by CatholicCaregivers.com, a program of the Friends of St. John the Caregiver (www.FSJC.org)

Caregiving is pro-life!

“Here I would like to encourage the efforts of those who work daily to ensure that the incurably and terminally ill, together with their families, receive adequate and loving care.”

--Pope Benedict XVI, Message for 2007 World Day of the Sick

Caregiving is pro-life!

“Here I would like to encourage the efforts of those who work daily to ensure that the incurably and terminally ill, together with their families, receive adequate and loving care.”

--Pope Benedict XVI, Message for 2007 World Day of the Sick

Caregiving is pro-life!

“If the life of a person is not considered as a value in itself, just because it does not correspond to the vision of a culture in which material well-being, efficiency and productivity are the fundamental ‘values’ for existence, then the way is open for laws that favor the ‘culture of death.’”

-- Cardinal Javier Lozano Barragán,
Homily for 2007
World Day of the Sick

Caregiving is pro-life!

“If the life of a person is not considered as a value in itself, just because it does not correspond to the vision of a culture in which material well-being, efficiency and productivity are the fundamental ‘values’ for existence, then the way is open for laws that favor the ‘culture of death.’”

--Cardinal Javier Lozano Barragán,
Homily for 2007 World Day of the Sick