

Bulletin and Newsletter Briefs

December 2011

prepared by CatholicCaregivers.com,

a program of the Friends of St. John the Caregiver (www.FSJC.org)

Caregiving is pro-life!

“We commend all those engaged in every aspect of caring for the disabled, the chronically ill, and the dying. . . . In your reverence for the bodies and spirits of your brothers and sisters, you are continuing the healing ministry of Jesus.”

– Living and Dying According to the Voice of Faith: A Pastoral Letter to the Catholics of the State of Michigan (1997)

Friends of St. John the Caregiver
www.FSJC.org
1-800-392-JOHN

Caregiving is pro-life!

“We commend all those engaged in every aspect of caring for the disabled, the chronically ill, and the dying. . . . In your reverence for the bodies and spirits of your brothers and sisters, you are continuing the healing ministry of Jesus.”

– Living and Dying According to the Voice of Faith: A Pastoral Letter to the Catholics of the State of Michigan (1997)

Friends of St. John the Caregiver
www.FSJC.org 1-800-392-JOHN

Caregiving is pro-life!

“Compassion as the word suggests is ‘suffering with,’ accompanying someone on a journey the length of which is not in our control. . . . It is love that gives dignity to everyone on that journey, especially the person dying.”

--Bishop Christopher Budd, Catholic Bishops Conference of England and Wales

Friends of St. John the Caregiver
www.FSJC.org
1-800-392-JOHN

Caregiving is pro-life!

“Compassion as the word suggests is ‘suffering with,’ accompanying someone on a journey the length of which is not in our control. . . . It is love that gives dignity to everyone on that journey, especially the person dying.”

--Bishop Christopher Budd, Catholic Bishops Conference of England and Wales

Friends of St. John the Caregiver
www.FSJC.org 1-800-392-JOHN